

Policy Document on Institutional Free ships

Gonna Institute of Information Technology and Sciences has always been driven by the vision of Sri G.B.Naidu, Chairman who believes in rewarding outstanding achievements to the next generation of leadership for organizations, communities and society at large. Scholarships are a form of financial aid that are often awarded to students to help cover the cost of their education. These scholarships can be in the form of grants, which do not need to be repaid, effectively making them a "free ship" for students in terms of financial assistance.

The institutional in-house Free ships are for the students studying in Under Graduate and Post Graduate course. Many scholarship programs are designed to support female students, SC, ST other backward classes (OBC) and EWS in their pursuit of education. These scholarships may be based on academic performance, financial need, or specific criteria, such as girls pursuing STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) fields.
