POLICY DOCUMENT FOR PROVIDING FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR TEACHERS

INTRODUCTION:

The institution's policy is to provide financial support to faculty members who meet higher standards for a range of professional development activities, such as research, conferences, workshops, seminars, symposia, courses, and journal publications in the field of engineering at the state, national, and international levels, as well as obtaining professional membership in the relevant fields.

OBJECTIVE:

- To enhance the faculty's educational credentials and level of abilities in accordance with the requirements of present-day circumstances.
- To develop a supportive environment where the teachers may communicate thoughts and knowledge.
- To participate in interaction with eminent researchers, industrial administrators, and researchers to expand the faculties in-depth subject training.

ELIGIBILITY:

- The regular teaching staff of the institute will be qualified for financial help.
- Each faculty member must attend a minimum of one conference, seminar, workshop, FDP etc. each semester, with a maximum of two.
- Each faculty member must present or publish at least one paper per year in national or international conferences or journals.
- The college will pay the registration fee and travel expenses (actual bus and train fare to and from).
- Teaching staff that complete their doctoral programs within the permitted time frames by utilizing the campus's resources or financial aid are required to work for at least three more years at the same institution.
